AHA Journey:
A Step-by-Step
Guide

What's Involved

Meet & Plan

Your child works with a Speech Pathologist (SP) to complete an initial assessment and set goals.

Billed: SP only + travel if required

Get to Know You Sessions

Your child attends a minimum of two joint sessions with the SP and AHA. This helps the AHA build rapport and learn how to deliver your child's therapy plan confidently.

Billed: SP + AHA (supervised) + travel if required

AHA Therapy Sessions

The AHA works directly with your child, following the SP's plan. Each session includes therapy, preparation, and documentation.

Billed: AHA (unsupervised) only (1.5 hours/session + travel if required)

Ongoing SP Supervision

Behind the scenes, your SP checks in with the AHA weekly to review progress and adjust the plan as needed.

No extra charge to families

Progress Review

Your child completes supervised sessions with the SP and AHA to review progress and make sure goals are still the right fit. Following this, your SP will update the therapy plan based on what's working and what's next.

Billed: SP + AHA (supervised) + travel if required

AHA Program Service

Breakdown

Service	What's Involved	Who Delivers It	Cost (2025)
Initial Appointment (if not already completed)	1-hour session with the SP to observe, discuss concerns, and build rapport, plus 1 hour for written summary and recommendations	Speech Pathologist (SP)	$387.98 (2 hrs @ $193.99)
Therapy Program Development	Written therapy plan with individualised goals, strategies, and routines	SP only	$193.99 (1 hr)

Estimated Total (10-week program, new clients)	Excludes travel.		$2,633.27 (incl. all sessions + review)

Notes:

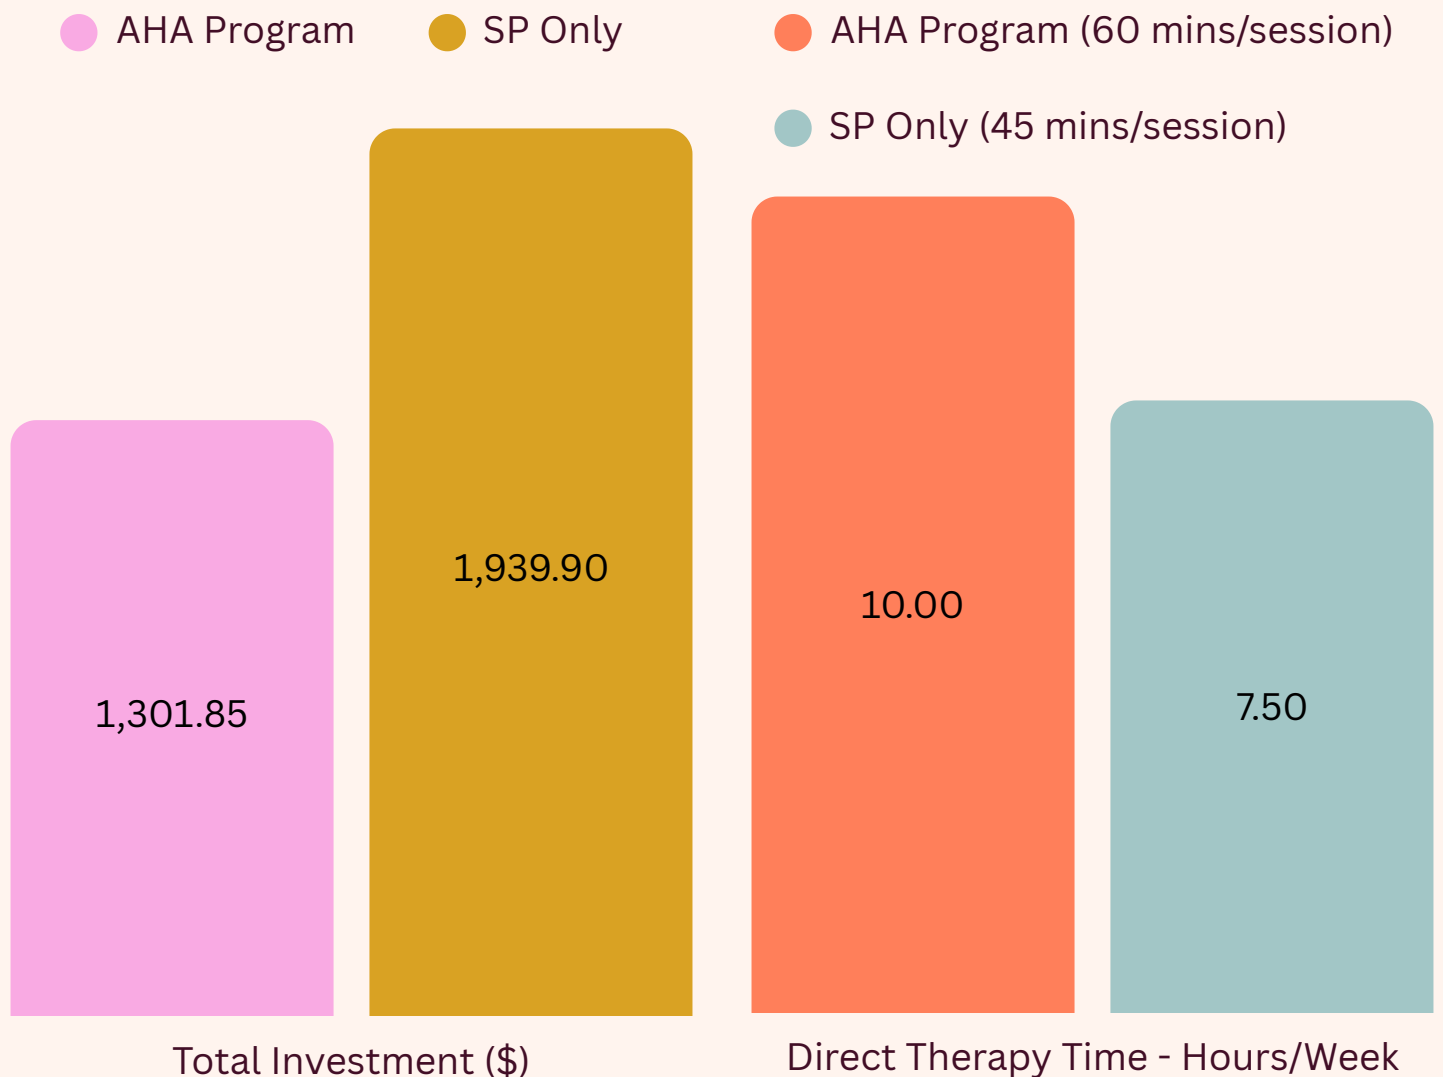

- The Initial Appointment is required for all new families and may be waived for current clients who have completed one in the past 6 months.
- Travel incurs an additional fee, depending on your location.
- All services are billed in line with the current NDIS Pricing Arrangements.
- Families receive a written quote before starting the program.

10 Weeks of Direct Therapy: AHA vs SP

A comparison of face-to-face therapy time and cost — excludes planning and review sessions, which are billed separately.

More therapy time, less cost — and your Speechie still has eyes on everything.

Our AHA Therapy Blocks deliver excellent value with personalised SP oversight, embedded into real-life routines.

Initial assessment, therapy plan development, and review sessions are billed separately and may vary based on your child's needs.

Is the AHA Program Right for Your Child?

To Get Started, You'll Need:

An Initial Appointment with a Speech Pathologist (SP)

A Therapy Plan developed and prescribed by the SP

Supervised sessions to kickstart the plan

Availability for weekly AHA sessions

A commitment to collaborating with your child's team

This Program Works Best for Children Who:

Thrive on consistent, frequent therapy

Are working on speech sounds, early language, social communication or literacy goals

Respond well to structured routines and play-based support

Benefit from therapy in familiar environments like home, kindy or school

Can participate in activities with adult support

Have parents/carers who are open to regular goal review and feedback sessions.
